

The Day

Advertisers Guaranteed Five to Six Times the Circulation of Any Other New London Evening Paper.

NEW LONDON, CONN, MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 1903.

Spending a Week in London.

S. Patterson, proprietor of the Crystal Candy Kitchen, Cronin building, has arrived in London, according to a letter received today. Mr. Patterson, after spending a week in the English capital, will proceed to Paris, after which he will visit his native land, Greece, returning to this country in the early summer.