
ACCORDING TO GREEK RITE.

Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. Socrates Patterson Is Christened.

The infant son of Socrates Patterson, proprietor of the Crystal cany kitchen, and wife was baptized at their home in one of the apartments in the new Malloy block, corner of Bank and Howard streets, last evening. The ceremony, which lasted over half an hour, was according to the rites of the Greek orthodox church. It was performed by Rev. Zissimos G. Typhaldos, rector of the Greek orthodox church in New York, who came especially to this city for the purpose. The godfather was Denis C. Bossos of New York, manufacturer of the well known Prince George of Greece cigarettes, who christened the boy Denis. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Kelesides, the parents of Mrs. Patterson, who have been paying quite a protracted visit, having come from Greece for that purpose.

The other guests present were L. Halikas, Mrs. Frank Drago, the Misses Melissa Epps and Nellie Brownell, Stephen Peterson and Lyman B. Pendleton of this city. After the ceremony Mr. Bossos presented each of the guests a silver piece of money, according to the custom among the members of the Greek church.
